Dear HealthyPlanet Friend/Business Sponsor,

Thanks for your interest in advertising in our Newsletter. Did you know that our next issue will have a circulation of 25,000 copies and that thousands will be mailed to our select mailing list, with the remainder distributed to health conscious establishments throughout Suffolk, Nassau, Queens, Brooklyn and Manhattan. We reach a targeted health and environmentally-oriented audience. In addition, your ad will be placed on our growing website. (www.healthy-planet.org)

I invite you to place your ad in our upcoming issue. Remember that our Newsletter is different than most others as we make no profit on its publication. Since all ad proceeds go toward the creation, printing and distribution, dollar-for-dollar, this is the most advertising you can buy for your money.

Please give us a call or send an email if you are interested in placing your ad in this issue. You may leave a message for me at 631 421-5591, Box #4. Or, simply forward an original copy of camera-ready-art along with payment to:

Thank you for your support,
Ted Rosenthaler, Advertising Director

P.S. All ad space is sold on a first come basis, with past advertisers getting priority. To assure your space, please call with your ad size and to let us know your art and payment are forthcoming. We will reserve your space at that time.
